king by the whigs to elect Mr. Parker, and from thing of the kind.

It is usual for many of the young whiglings party, by such a course.

LOOK OUT for " Secret Circulars," and " Las Cardst"-The Times has so much to say on these subjects that we cannot avoid the conclusion that the whigs have something in preparation, to be circulated on the morning of the election. We know of nothing of the sort in contemplation by the democrats, and consequently look on the givings out of the Times as a subterfuge to divert attention from their own mancevures - as the rascal often socks to escape arrost, by being the loudest to cry "stop thief!" Look out for them, and treat them with the con tempt they deserve.

What does it mean?-Judging from the agony of the Times, and the out-doors movements of the Whigs, it is apparent there is trouble in the camp. Most of the whig lawyers, speculators and merchants appear exceedingly anxious to have Parker elected. Every farmer who comes to town is attacked, and every species of misrepresentation is resorted to to defeat Mr. McMahon. A reaction has evidently taken place, and whiggery is becoming alarmed. Farmers can no longer be gulled to vote for a man who has shown himself so in-the dead letter office! This is rather a rough competent, as to allow himself to be made a sool of, to introduce a bill into the Legislature and did not evince any very exalted opinion ters read, and a committee appointed to prepare to rob hundreds of their citizens of their farms, and whose only excuse is that he did not know the nature of the bill he introduced, and was ignorant of its power for mischief.
